What is TReDS? TReDS (Trade Receivable Discounting System) is an institutional mechanism that allows businesses to auction trade receivables (invoices) on a digital platform, and the platform serves as a transparent and quick medium for small scale players to avail funds at cheaper rates, through banking and factoring companies. TReDS helps a supplier to realize payment against an invoice raised to a buyer through a financier at discounted rates in a significantly low number of days.

GeM encourages sellers, particularly MSMEs to join the webinar on 28 February to discover more about how TReDS integration, and how it can transform the market positively for MSMEs across India.
